

NJ Hospital Closures as of 1995

HOSPITAL	YEAR CLOSED
South Bergen Hospital, Hasbrouck Heights	1987
Livingston Community Hospital	1988
St. Mary's Hospital, Orange (now a nursing facility St. Mary's Life Center)	1989
Kennedy Memorial Hospital, Saddle Brook	1992
Zurbrugg Hospital, Riverside	1995
United Hospitals Medical Center, Newark	1997
Roosevelt Hospital, Edison (now a nursing facility Roosevelt Care Center)	1997
Montclair Community Hospital	1999
Marlboro State Psychiatric Hospital	1998
South Amboy Memorial Hospital	1999
Point Pleasant Hospital	2000
Elizabeth General (consolidated w/ St. Elizabeth w/ formation of Trinitas)	2000
Virtua Health - West Jersey Hospital, Camden	2000
St. Francis Hospital, Jersey City	2002
South Jersey Healthcare, Millville	2002
Dover General Hospital (now reopening as acute care)	2002
Beth Israel Hospital, Passaic (consolidated w/ purchase of General Hospital Center at Passaic as PBI Regional Medical Center)	2003
West Hudson Hospital, Kearny	2003
Hospital Center at Orange	2004
South Jersey Healthcare, Bridgeton (new facility called South Jersey Regional Medical Center)	2004
South Jersey Healthcare, Newcomb (new facility called South Jersey Regional Medical Center)	2004
Irvington General Hospital	2006

BOLD: Acute care hospital closures since 2000 (10 - excluding Dover due to reopening and excluding one of the three South Jersey Healthcare closings, as a new facility was built to replace them.)

NEW JERSEY HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

760 Alexander Road, Princeton, NJ 08543 ■ www.njha.com