Advancing Nursing Leadership: Many Roads to Success - A Dialogue with CNOs

Oct. 28 and Nov. 17, 2010

Cosponsored by: New Jersey Hospital Association ONE/NJ
Location: New Jersey Hospital Association

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES
The New Jersey Hospital Association and the Organization of Nurse Executives/NJ invites you to a valuable series of presentations that will provide early-and mid-career nurse managers with the opportunity to learn from nurse leaders. Their vast experience and knowledge will provide you with a meaningful dialogue from true nurse leaders.

As healthcare professionals you’ve obtained your schooling, your degrees and on-the-job training. Now is the time to hear from a group of leaders who have a wealth of experiences and lessons learned that they are eager to share with you.

Part of each two-hour program will allow for comments from faculty and questions from the attendees.

Some of the issues addressed will include:
- What career advice do you have for someone who wants to be promoted to a senior nurse leadership position?
- What do nurse leaders pay too little attention to?
- As you move up the hierarchy to more advanced positions, what should you pay particular attention to?
- What was one of your most helpful lessons learned in respect to leadership?
- What do you see as the top one or two things today’s nurse leaders need to address in order to be successful?
- What do you look for in an applicant for a leadership position?

YOU MAY CHOOSE TO ATTEND ONE or BOTH OF THESE SESSIONS. SEATING IS LIMITED, SO REGISTER EARLY.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
Early-and mid-careerists interested in advancing in their leadership careers (e.g. leadership students, clinicians, supervisors, managers, directors, vice presidents and others.)
