

Cultural Competency in Disasters

March 29, 2007

8:30 am – 12:00 pm

Middlesex County Fire Academy, Sayreville, NJ

A Seminar Featuring:

April J. Naturale, MSW, LCSW, ACSW

Expert in Disaster Mental Health Management and Training
Former Project Director for Project Liberty,
FEMA's Crisis Counseling and Training Program in New York State after 9/11

Target Audience: All health professionals, including health educators, social workers, mental health counselors, case managers, Health Officers, Registered Environmental Health Specialists, physicians, nurses, and other health care providers.

Continuing Education Credits approved for Health Officers, Registered Environmental Health Specialists, and CHES, and are pending for social workers, physicians, and nurses.

No fee for registration or continuing education credits!

Register at <https://njlmn.rutgers.edu>

For more information contact: Juana Canela at canelaju@umdnj.edu or 732-235-4958

Sponsored by: The New Jersey Center for Public Health Preparedness at UMDNJ-SPH
The New Jersey -Preparedness Training Consortium
The Center for the Elimination of Health Disparities

Nation's First Collaborative School of Public Health

