

Trucks and Terrorism Workshop

The New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness, in conjunction with, the United States Department of Transportation, will be conducting a one-day workshop on Trucks and Terrorism: Rapid Risk Recognition, Assessment, and Response Workshop on August 1, 2007. The workshop will be held at the Hamilton Technology Center Auditorium, 1200 Negron Drive, Hamilton, New Jersey.

The workshop is designed with an emphasis on the identification and interdiction of a “threat” before and incident or a suspect truck enters a workplace or community. Attendees will receive an introduction to simple and time proven techniques that support the development of everyday scenario assessment. The workshop will also provide the attendee with an opportunity to formulate, review or improve their security plan while being exposed to techniques to enhance risk recognition skills. Pre-registration is required for this course by no later than July 23, 2007. New Jersey law enforcement officers MUST register for this course online via www.NJLearn.com. Out-of-state law enforcement officers should follow below instruction for registering. For further details regarding this course, or to request a registration form, please e-mail OHSPtraining@ohsp.state.nj.us or call the Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness at (609)584-4000. Spaces are limited. A confirmation letter, including additional logistical information, will be e-mailed (after July 23, 2007) directly to the attendees.
