

Chemical Casualty Care Division Educational Products

Product	Description	Credit Available	How to Register
Medical Management of Chemical and Biological Casualties (MCBC) Course (In House)	The Medical Management of Chemical and Biological Casualties Course (MCBC) is designed for physicians, nurses and other medical professionals. Classroom, laboratory and field instruction focuses on pathophysiology, diagnosis and treatment of casualties. Course Number: 6H - F26	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physicians (Medical Corps officers, MD, DO) - 44 CME • Nurses (Military (AN/NC) Civilian (RN) - 55.6 CEU contact hours. • All Other Attendees (DC, VC, SP/PA, MS, Senior Medical NCOs, EMT, LPN) - Certificate of attendance for 44 credit hours 	Active Army: Fill out a Training Form (DA3838) and send it through the chain of command to PERSCOM. Active Navy: Request a seat in the course by contacting Naval Operational Medicine Institute (NOMI), ATTN: HM1 Christopher Glover, 220 Hovey Road, Pensacola, FL 32508-1047, telephone 850-452-8266, DSN 922-8266. Upon approval, your name will then be entered into the ATRRS, based on available slots. Air Force: Request a seat in the course by contacting the training office at Randolph Air Force Base. Phone: (210) 565-2638 DSN 665-2638 Army Reserve: Request a seat in the course through your reserve unit. National Guard: Applicants should apply through their State Plans, Operations and Training Office, their unit or contact the National Guard in Arlington, VA. DoD Civilian Personnel must fill out a DD1556. This form should be submitted through the chain of command for approval and sent to the respective CPO Training Office. Non-DoD Civilian Requestors: Submit a written request to our office which includes your name, social security number, address, phone number, email address, job description, job title, and point of contact. Fax: (410) 436-3086
Field Management of Chemical and Biological Casualties (FCBC) Course (In House)	The Field Management of Chemical and Biological Casualties Course (FCBC) is designed for medical and chemical NCOs, Chemical and Medical Service Corps officers and civilian first responders. Instruction focuses on emergency treatment, triage, decontamination and evacuation of casualties.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All Participants obtain 40 credit hours for attending the course. 	Submit a written request to our office which includes name, rank, social security number (DoD Military Only), address, phone number, email address, job description, job title, and point of contact. Fax: (410) 436-3086 Active Navy: Request a seat in the course by contacting Naval Operational Medicine Institute (NOMI), ATTN: HM1 Christopher Glover, 220 Hovey Road, Pensacola, FL 32508-1047, telephone 850-452-8266, DSN 922-8266
Medical Management of Chemical and Biological Casualties (MCBC) Videotape Course	This series of 17 videotapes is NOT intended to replace the in house MCBC course. Rather, the series is designed for refresher training of medical personnel and as an alternate way of obtaining the core didactic MCBC material when attendance at the in house course is not feasible.	CME/CEU are available for the videotape course until 23 JUN 2003. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physicians – 14.5 CME • Nurses – 17.4 CEU • All Others – 14.5 Credit Hours 	DoD Personnel: obtain tapes through Defense Audio Visual Information System (DAVIS) at http://dodimagery.afis.osd.mil Fax: COM (570) 895-6106 DSN 795-6106 Non-DoD Requestors: Obtain tapes through National Technical Information Service (NTIS) at http://www.ntis.gov Phone: 1-800-553-6847 Fax: (703) 605-6900 Order Number: AVA20830VOXO Cost: $350 Obtain Facilitator Registration Form and submit via fax to COM 410-436-3086; DSN 584-3086

Updated: 24 SEPTEMBER 2001

Product	Description	Credit Available	Obtaining Material (DoD)	Obtaining Materials (Non-DoD)
“Medical Response to Chemical Warfare and Terrorism 2000” Videotape Series	The program combines the best of the 1999 program with new and updated information. Program topics include: review of the history, physical properties, clinical effects and treatment of chemical warfare agents, case studies of actual exposures, interviews with scientists discussing their cutting edge research in medical countermeasure development, updates on treatment and field management and a recorded question and answer session.	CME/CEU Credit will be available.	Contact CCCD at (410) 436-2230 DSN 584-2230	Available through NTIS at http://www.ntis.gov Phone: 1-800-553-6847 Fax: (703) 605-6900 Order Number: AVA20893VNB6 Cost: $135
Medical Management of Chemical Casualties Supplemental Training Materials V. 2.00 CD-ROM	This product is designed primarily for sustainment training in the medical management of chemical casualties. By listening to didactic instruction while viewing PowerPoint slides (MMCC Fundamentals), students obtain core content on the medical management of chemical casualties. The additional materials contained on the CD support the instructional material (textbook, handbook, video segments, casualty assessment, related published work).	NA	Contact CCCD at (410) 436-2230 DSN 584-2230	Available through NTIS at http://www.ntis.gov Phone: 1-800-553-6847 Fax: (703) 605-6900 Order Number: AVA20829CDRM Cost: $30
Textbook of Military Medicine, Medical Aspects of Chemical and Biological Warfare	This volume of the textbook was prepared for military medical educational use. The purpose of the textbook is to make the reader aware of the threats of chemical and biological weapons and how to respond to them. The main focus of the textbook is the medical management of chemical and biological casualties. Read the textbook on line at http://ccc.apgea.army.mil	NA	Military Medical Personnel Contact Joyce Gross at the AMEDD Center and School. Fax request to (210) 221-4012 Cost: Complimentary Non Military: See Non-DoD	Contact Government Printing Office Phone: (202) 512-1800 Web: www.access.gpo.gov/su_docs Cost: $66 Domestic/$82.50 Foreign
Medical Management of Chemical Casualties Handbook, Third Edition, July 2000	The handbook provides medical personnel in the field with a concise, pocket-sized reference source for the medical management of chemical casualties.	NA	Government Agencies: Contact CCCD at (410) 436-2230 DSN 584-2230 See an illustrated version of the handbook at http://ccc.apgea.army.mil	Non Government Agencies: Contact Linda Harris, EAI Corp. Phone: (410) 676-1449
Field Management of Chemical Casualties Handbook, Second Edition, July 2000	The handbook provides military and civilian emergency response personnel in the field with a concise, pocket-sized reference source for the medical management of chemical casualties.	NA	Government Agencies: Contact CCCD at (410) 436-2230 DSN 584-2230 See the handbook at http://ccc.apgea.army.mil	Non Government Agencies: Contact Linda Harris, EAI Corp. Phone: (410) 676-1449