

FREE

Lunch and Learn Webinar

Election Update

The Results and Impact of the 2014 Election

Nov. 12, 2014

12 p.m. – 1 p.m.

Join NJHA, Washington Strategic Consulting and Winning Strategies Washington for a one-hour summary of the results of the Nov. 4 mid-term elections and the effect on healthcare. The presenters will break down the winners and losers and the impact of the results for 2015. Topics covered will include:

- Complete analysis of the 2014 mid-term elections, both New Jersey and nationwide results
- Profiles of New Jersey's newest members of Congress
- Leadership changes across the country
- What to expect during the upcoming lame-duck session of Congress
- A preview of the 114th Congress

Presenters:

Kyle Mulroy

Founding and Managing Partner
Washington Strategic Consulting

Michael A. Merola

Partner
Winning Strategies Washington

To register online, log on to:

<https://njha.webex.com/mw04011/mywebex/default.do?siteurl=njha&service=6>

and scroll down to the “NJHA-Health Economics” section.

There is no fee for this Lunch and Learn Webinar, however registration is required. Please do not delete any e-mails received from WebEx post-registration as they contain important information needed to join the Webinar.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Joanne Aaronson at 609-275-4024 or jaaronson@njha.com.