Your Seven-Hour Requirement
New Jersey Hospital Association, Princeton, NJ

May 14, 2015

Registration:	8 a.m. – 8:30 a.m.	Fee:	NJHA Member: $495 ea.
Program:	8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.		Non-member: $895 ea.
Location:	NJHA Conference and Event Center
Seminar:	EDU 1539

This program is offered to board of trustee members to fulfill their state-mandated education requirements. The sessions provide a comprehensive understanding of the role and responsibilities of a trustee and is a primer for understanding the financial statements for healthcare institutions.

Designed to introduce members of a hospital governing body to the principles of hospital governance, this program will provide an understanding of the roles and responsibilities of serving as a hospital trustee. The seminar is focused on the ethical and fiduciary responsibilities of a trustee, the governing body's role in promoting healthcare quality, hospital organization and governance, hospital financial management and legal/regulatory compliance issues. This seven-hour program is intended to fulfill the state-mandated hospital governing body training, but is useful for anyone serving on a healthcare board of trustees.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Discuss state-mandated topics for trustee education program
2. Equip new governing board members with useful information to discharge their board duties.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Newly-appointed hospital board of trustee and/or director members

FACULTY:

DAN SINNOTT is an executive consultant for Sinnott Executive Consulting, lecturer at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, and an accomplished national speaker and writer. Dan's first book is titled The Commencement: Eight Challenging Guidelines for Achieving Business & Career Success. The second book titled The Intersection- Ensuring the Success of Your Business and Career Through Succession Planning was just published in December 2013.

Prior to starting his own consulting firm, Sinnott served as Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer of Temple University Hospital, Philadelphia. Before joining Temple, Dan spent 15 years with Denver-based Catholic Health Initiatives, most recently as regional Senior Vice President of Operations. Dan has also served on 17 different Board of Trustees, which adds to his perspective on Succession Planning and business/leadership skill development.

Dan holds an MBA in Health Administration from Temple University.

LOUIS H. FEUERSTEIN: With more than 35 years of experience in public accounting, Lou leads the firm's healthcare services group as practice leader. His client base includes public and private healthcare providers and payers, including health systems, hospitals, FQHCs, senior living facilities, home health agencies, health insurers and physician group practices. Prior to joining Grant Thornton, Lou was a senior advisory partner at a big four public accounting firm. In this role he managed the accounting and consulting services for some of the largest healthcare integrated delivery systems and academic medical centers in the New Jersey and New York markets. In addition, he directed the firm's corporate compliance program practice and the health insurance portability and accountability act privacy practice on a national basis.

As healthcare business services practice leader, Lou oversees seven partners and over 70 professionals dedicated to the hospital industry. The firm provides audit, tax and consulting services to over 100 hospitals in New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania, as well as several other states.

Lou has been responsible for healthcare audit and consulting engagements for a large number of organizations. In addition to his financial statement audit responsibilities, Lou's consulting experience includes billing and coding services, managed care services, valuation services, financial statement and operational assessments and financial feasibility studies. Most recently, Lou has served as the lead partner in connection with several of the largest hospital mergers and affiliations in New Jersey. His expertise also includes corporate compliance program development, implementation and evaluation, HIPAA privacy program development and implementation and merger and acquisition/due diligence services.
