NJHA is hosting a New Jersey Diversity and Leadership Forum to discuss opportunities for improving diversity in hospital management and fostering a culture of equity and inclusion. The event will not only engage leadership and governance, but also bring together a spectrum of community stakeholders.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Initiate conversation among attendees regarding ways in which they can foster a culture of diversity and inclusion in their workplace
2. Share case studies (Meridian/RWJ/JCMC) where New Jersey hospitals have successfully utilized diversity and inclusion strategies
3. Define the concept and rationale for cultural competence and its relevance for reducing disparities and fostering equity in healthcare
4. Describe how engaging patients, families and communities can help address selected diversity, cultural and language challenges in healthcare and improve clinical and population health outcomes.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Hospital leadership, hospital governing boards, physician leadership and human resources professionals.
