

FREE

Lunch and Learn Webinar

Federal Legislative Year-End Recap
What Happened in 2015 and What's Ahead in 2016

Dec. 10, 2015

12 noon – 1 p.m.

Join NJHA and Capitol Hill veterans Kyle Mulroy and Michael Merola for a review of the key healthcare federal legislative activities in 2015 and a preview of federal policy issues that may impact the New Jersey healthcare community in 2016. Topics to be covered include:

- Congress's 2015 healthcare accomplishments and their impact on providers
- Preview of 2016 legislative battles
- New Jersey congressional delegation update and activities
- The politics of the House leadership shakeup
- A look-ahead to the 2016 Presidential election

Presenters:

Kyle Mulroy

Founder, Washington Strategic Consulting

Michael A. Merola

Founding Partner, Winning Strategies Washington

To register online, log on to:

<https://njha.webex.com>

and scroll down to the “NJHA-Health Economics” section.

There is no fee for this Lunch and Learn Webinar, however registration is required. Please do not delete any e-mails received from WebEx post-registration as they contain important information needed to join the Webinar.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Joanne Aaronson at 609-275-4024 or jaaronson@njha.com.