November 7, 2016

11 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

In-person option at 760 Alexander Rd, Princeton, NJ 08543

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

As hospitals and health systems evolve to meet the needs of their members and the community they serve, volunteers are helping the process immensely. This webinar is designed to educate hospitals or health system volunteers and auxiliaries on national best practices and innovative volunteer programs.

OBJECTIVES:

- Provide information on AHA's Hospital Award for Volunteer Excellence (HAVE) Committee on Volunteers and State Auxiliary Leaders network.
- Describe innovative volunteer programs including recent HAVE winners and finalists.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Hospital volunteers and auxiliaries

FACULTY:

Joan M. Ryzner, MHA
American Hospital Association
Director of Member Relations

Joan Ryzner is a director of member relations with the American Hospital Association. She is also a member of AHA's CEO Relations team.

Prior to these responsibilities she served as executive director of AHA's Association for Healthcare Volunteer Resource Professionals, the only national organization devoted to healthcare volunteer resources.

Joan holds a master's degree in health administration from the University of Southern California and a bachelor's degree in journalism from California State University, Fresno.
