Program Overview:

The LGBT community continues to be an underserved population in the healthcare field, with poorer health outcomes related to stigma and barriers to care than the non-LGBT peers. In conjunction with NJHA's LGBT Community Health Workgroup, this program will help healthcare workers develop LGBT cultural competencies with a particular focus on resources to aid in educating patients and families, significant other inclusion, the collection of SOGI (sexual orientation and gender identity) data and understanding the unique health needs and outcomes of the LGBT population.

Topics for the conference will include:

1. Identifying best practices with LGBT patients for clinician and caregivers
2. Training in cultural competency for providers and administrators
3. Analyzing policy implications and best practices for SOGI data collection, and
4. Outlining best practice N.J. hospitals' experiences as leaders in LGBT health in their journey to Healthcare Equality Index (HEI) designation.

Target Audience:

Physicians, nurses, public health professionals
