Seminar | EDU 1839

OVERVIEW:

This managed care bootcamp will discuss what is happening in the healthcare marketplace, including with healthcare payers, and timely issues with managed care contracts. It will start with an overview of what to look for (or avoid) in managed care agreements that can have substantial negative consequences, including language regarding termination, amendment, payment issues, bundling payments, pre-authorization, and silent PPOs. It will also discuss trends in tiered networks and new models (e.g., Brighton Health Plan Solutions' "Create" product, models that involve selection by employees of a health system for ALL healthcare services and discounts involved, and legislation affecting NJ hospitals and managed care plans, including the proposed out of network bill.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Attorneys, compliance officers, chief financial officers, managed care executives and other healthcare executives
