Seminar | EDU 1939

OVERVIEW:

This presentation is intended to provide a detailed overview of hospital interactions with elected officials and political candidates, including information for both 501(c)(3) hospitals and for-profit hospitals. In addition to a substantive overview of the applicable laws, the presentation will include strategies for compliance.

Ethical Interactions with Elected Officials, Lobbying and Political Activity for Hospitals is intended to address:

- Gift and entertainment rules for New Jersey elected officials.
- Lobbying restrictions and requirements under both IRS standards and New Jersey law.
- Political-activity and government-contracting considerations for hospitals.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Attorneys, trustees, compliance officers and ethics committee members
