OVERVIEW:

This program will focus on compliance with the regulations governing the Health Care Professional Responsibility and Reporting Enhancement Act (HCPRREA). The HCPRREA requires all licensed New Jersey healthcare entities to report licensed or certified healthcare professionals whose conduct is impaired and/or who exhibit incompetence or professional misconduct to notify the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs, Health Care Professional Information Clearing House Coordinator.

The Department of Health regulations under HCPRREA address information that is required to be provided by healthcare entities to other healthcare entities in New Jersey as part of the employment process.

Participants will learn about provider and DOH and DCA experiences and lessons learned, as well as the practical, everyday implications of achieving compliance.

OBJECTIVES:

- To understand the requirements of the HCPRREA
- To achieve compliance with the reporting aspects of the Act and regulations
- To identify areas for facility policy and procedure development
- To understand the risks of non-compliance with the Act

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Administrators, executive directors, chief operating officers, human resource executives, corporate compliance executives and in-house counsel in the all licensed healthcare organizations.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS:

Nursing Home Administrators Licensing Board Statement:

This continuing education program is sponsored/conducted by the Health Research and Educational Trust of New Jersey and is in compliance with N.J.A.C 8:34-7.3 to provide nursing home administrator (LNHA) and certified assisted living administrator (CALA) education credits accepted by the Nursing Home Administrators Licensing Board. This education activity may only be used for continuing education credit and not to meet academic college credits.

This education activity has been approved for 2.0 LNHA/CALA credits

American College of Healthcare Executives: (Credits pending)

As an independent chartered Chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives, the ACHE-NJ is authorized to award 0.0 hours of ACHE Qualified Education credit toward advancement or recertification in the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Participants in this program who wish to have it considered for ACHE qualified education credit should list their attendance when they apply to the American College of Healthcare Executive for advancement or recertification.
