

Patients, Prejudice & Policy 2 Time to ACT

(Awareness, Change & Transformation)

REGISTRATION 9 A.M. | PROGRAM 9:30 A.M. – 2:45 P.M. | APRIL 7, 2020

NJHA Conference & Event Center | 760 Alexander Road, Princeton, NJ

Join us as we take action steps to interrupt our own implicit biases – those negative reactions you have to a person based on any variety of factors that may include race, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation, or even weight, accents or body art. Learn how these reactions aren't based on reality as much as on life messages observed and used when your brain is on autopilot. Presenters and participants will then explore ways to increase awareness and recognition of bias, create change strategies and begin to transform ourselves – and our organizations – to improve health equity.
